Club honors Harker Heights Police Officer and Fire Fighter of the year

Harker Heights police officer David Haley, left, and Harker Heights fire fighter Jacob Cardona were recognized on January 6, 2014 as "Officers of the Year for 2013."

Officer Dave Haley is a Community Service Officer for Harker Heights Police Department and has 15 years of service with the city; in that time he has established himself as a dedicated, hardworking and respected representative of the City of Harker Heights, Texas. Officer Haley's professionalism has been demonstrated with his never ending support of the Department programs; to include the "Blue Santa" program, which

Officer Haley was single-handedly responsible for the acquisition, restoration and delivery of over 40 bicycles to children in the community for the past 4 years. He has taken it upon himself to insure that not one of the programs instituted by the Police department has faltered or been neglected, to include, Cub/Boy/Girl Scout tours of the department, "McGruff" appearances, and National Night Out. Additionally, he has assisted in initiating the neighbor watch program, lectures on personal safety for both elderly and children, and serving the School District as a Police Department representative.

Fire Fighter Jacob Cardona is a Paramedic/Firefighter with Harker Heights Fire Department. He started with the department in March 2008 and presently serves as a front line Driver/Operator and has stepped up to Lieutenant when needed. He has been a field training officer on the ambulance and a fire skills instructor. Fire Fighter Cardona is currently completing his fire officer course to advance in his career. He enjoys spending time with his wife Brandy and his 4 year old son Blake. Jacob Cardona was nominated by the community and his co-workers for having a very strong work ethic, integrity and values which are apparent in every aspect of his work.
