Ms Tammy Moseley, KPD
Crime Prevention Officer

Guest Speaker, Jan 13, 2014

Ms Moseley is an extremely motivated and dedicated crimes prevention officer for Killeen Police department. She presented an overview of several programs under her umbrella, specifically the successful Citizen Police Academy. This is a 12 week course that teaches participants all aspects of the department to include a day on the firing range, Hostage negotiations', SWAT and K-9 demonstrations. Additionally, KCOP (Killeen citizen on patrol) who assist with traffic control at parades and special events. Ms Moseley discussed the "Neighborhood Watch" and its implantation by neighbor citizens. "House Watch" program involves KPD conducting frequent checks on your home during your vacation when requested. Also, the very popular "National Night Out" program organized by neighborhoods that are visited by all "First Responders" and city government officials.
