Club Meets Every Monday at Noon at the Yank Sing Restaurant, CTE, Killeen

Editor Maureen Jean Jouett

Killeen Police & Fire Rescue Officers of the Year

Community Service Chair Kathy Clark Jones introduced the program and thanked Jacob Brooks, City Editor for attending the club meeting.

The members of the Exchange Club of Killeen honored Neal Holtzclaw (KPD) and James Davis (KFD) as our Police Officer and Fire Rescue Officer of the year.

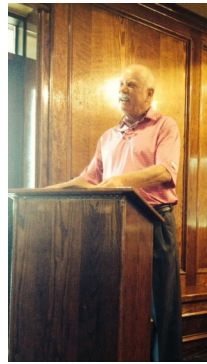

Club member (and former Deputy Chief) Richard Jouett introduced Deputy Chief Kenneth Hawthorne. Chief Hawthorne then read Mr. Davis' bio and spoke about his service to the Fire Department and who he was selected for this honor.

Club member (and former Mayor) Maureen Jouett introduced Assistant Chief Larry Longwell. Chief Longwell then read Mr. Holtzclaw's bio and told the club a little about him.

Both officers were nominated by their leadership to receive this award. In honor of their service each were presented with a commemorative plaque.

Stonetree Golf Course in Killeen

Brad Baine, General Manager at the Stonetree Municipal Golf Course in Killeen spoke to the club regarding upgrades that had been done to the course and plans for the future. This course is a big economic development tool for the City of Killeen and each year rounds of golf played continue to increase.

Dear Neighbor,

Thank you for flying your flag. I noticed that your flag is torn, soiled or in need of repair. Please make arrangements to repair or replace it as soon as possible.

by Scott Huffman
(reprinted with permission)

"I Stand Along The Factories, In The Fields,
And By The Seas
From Mountaintops To Valley Lows
From Sea To Shining Sea
Where People Sweat, And Bleed, And Work
Pursuing All Their Dreams
That's The Stitching In My Fabric
It's What Makes Up My Strong Seams!"
